

BETTY DISCOGRAPHY

THE ORIGINAL RECORDINGS

- RISE (BR Music). Producer: BETTY 2013

Released in conjunction with Eve Ensler's "One Billion Rising" campaign, the global event to end violence against women and girls, the song "Rise" has been featured at humanitarian and Human Rights events worldwide. As Arts Envoys for the US State Department, BETTY began to run workshops using this song as a theme, which led to the creation of The BETTY Effect

- BRIGHT & DARK (BR Music). Producer: David Maurice, 2010

BETTY's most successful cd to date, with over 100,000+ YouTube plays of the single "Did You Tell Her" and tv licensing of every song.

- SNOWBIZ (Stereo Society). Producer: Mike Thorne, 2006

The oft-requested and long-awaited Holiday Album: 13 Stirring Songs and Stories for the Seasonally Depressed. Guest Artists Gloria Steinem, Allison Miller (Natalie Merchant) and Genya Ravan (Goldie & The Gingerbreads) join BETTY and their superb side musicians. Songs like "Xmas Ain't Coming", "Miracles Can Happen" & "Lullabye" make this album a holiday radio classic.

- BETTY RULES (BR Music). Producers: BETTY and Mike Thorne, 2005

The Original Cast Recording of the smash Off-Broadway hit, written by BETTY and directed by Michael Greif ("Rent", "Next To Normal"). Songs, including "It Girl", "Kissing You" and "Jungle Jane", explore the band's history

- CARNIVAL (Stereo Society). Producer: Mike Thorne, 2000

This 30-minute concept CD whirls the listener through a day on the Midway. The mix of colorful music, passionate lyrics and introspective spoken word creates a highly addictive trip. Songs "Wishing Well", "Jungle Jane" and "Millennium Man".

- BETTY3 (TMFB Records). Producers: A. Palmer, E. Ziff, 1999

The CD begins with the anthemic "It Girl" and doesn't let up until the abrupt final chord of "Lucy". BETTY's most rockin' and radio-requested album. Guest musicians Alison Cornell (Shania Twain) on "Naughty Nadia", Keith Carlock (Steely Dan) on drums/percussion and the ever-melodic and manly Tony Salvatore on guitars push the band to their most feral sound.

- LIMBOLAND (TMFB Records). Producer: BETTY, 1995

The album with the tv & film soundtrack hits "Flick That Thing" (HBO's "Real Sex" theme song), "Atypical Love" ("The Incredibly True Adventure of Two Girls in Love"/Miramax) and the title track (Goldie Hawn's "The Out-of-Towners"/Paramount, with cameos by BETTY). Guests Hook Herrera (Allman Brothers) on harmonica and Dave Liles, drums.

- KISS MY STICKY (TMFB Records). Producer: Mike Thorne, 1994

Club EP with title track, dance mixes & a cappella.

- HELLO, BETTY (TMFB Records). Producer: Mike Thorne, 1992

21 songs and pieces long, BETTY's first album has the most a cappella and spoken word of any of their recordings. "Ladybug" and "Echo" were used on the HBO series, "Encyclopedia". Produced by the man who gave the world "Tainted Love" by Soft Cell and Til Tuesday's "Voices Carry"
